

Israel Today

Standpoint

We see the time has changed. Israel although still the Jewish State is about to face deepest challenge in its history which is the demographic issue so we decided to work on melting the Jews and the Arabs living here and creating the new Israeli identity opened to it's new heritage which is both Jewish and Arab. Therefore we support all kinds peace initiatives on both sides which we find realistic and promising to give us peace.