

The News Leader

Proud to serve our community for more than 100 years

www.newsleader.com

Friday, June 12, 2009 | 50¢

Breaking News

Historical agreement between Egypt, Saudi-Arabia and Iran

Shaking hands after signing the historical agreement

Russia is strengthening his relations to the Middle East. As an observer the Russian nation is not only a major external force during the Middle East Conference in Konstanz, but it is also increasing its cooperation with Iran. We will see how especially the USA and the European Union will regard these new development.

This morning a historical and surprising agreement between Egypt, Saudi Arabia and Iran was signed under the affirmation of Russia. The core of the agreement states that the three countries support the formation of a future Palestinian state under a Palestinian coalition government. The signatories also agreed on the "right for civilian use of nuclear energy under the monitoring of the IAEAO".

The Egyptian ambassador, Ella Baherozi, announced that "the agreement would not contradict previous agreements" and Egypt is very optimistic about further developments.

By signing the agreement Iran expresses its will to hold a more moderate position regarding the current conflict and its interest in becoming a more important and recognized player in the international community.

FIVE IN FIVE

The USA just announced that the USA, EU, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Israel and Palestine signed the Five in the Five

Plan. In the following five years, Israel and Palestine agree in diplomatic and economic relations, the creation of security and sovereignty, solving the boarder and refugees issues and finally clarify the Jerusalem question.

LEBANON: „WE NEED HELP FROM THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY“

Latest developments in Lebanon led to an increasing presence of Hizbollah. The government had to admit that they have been not able to deliver peace yet. Instead Lebanese people are still suffering from hunger and pain. Therefore the government asks for help of the international community. Immediately Russia responded that they would be surprised about missing Russian forces in Lebanon, but underlined further support. Also Turkey reacted: the Turkish government wants to recreate peace and stability in the region and tries to discuss with the Hizbollah via its connection to Iran. The US answer to Lebanon was rather reserved. The USA did not want to comment any statement. It will be interesting to see in how far further member states of the Middle East Conference will react to the Lebanese call for support.

SYRIA'S NEW PATH

Syrian delegation believes in Turkey's deeds and in the Turkish Syrian cooperation while admitting the result of the Lebanese election. They are looking forward cooperating with these two countries. They believe that the results will play an important role in developing their relation.

On the other hand till now they didn't reach to an agreement with the Israeli side about the "Jolan heights" as soon as they do, they will in-

EGYPTIAN AND JORDIAN DELEGATIONS: „WE CARE FOR THE PALESTINIANS!“

The Egyptian and Jordanian delegations agreed on motivating the social side of the conflict and not only concentrating on the political issues. According to these delegations, one should think of the social issues from now for the phase after finding the 2 state solution. This is kind of initiative between the 2 sides to encourage the other sides of considering the Palestinian society. „we point out that the Palestinian issue is a priority for us“ said Tarek Hijazy from the Egyptian delegation. In a short interview with him, he said the the Israeli delegation told him that they would be ready to contribute in helping the Palestinian society indirectly by giving some scholarships to some non-governmental organizations which are active in developing the Palestinian society.